Old Mission Bancorp, Inc. 4th Quarter Special Dividend Declared

A special 4th Quarter cash dividend of $.07 was paid on December 14th to shareholders of record date November 18, 2015. The combined 2015 dividend of $0.30 is an 11% increase over 2014 dividends per share and represents 25% of the company's prior year net income. "2015 is the eighth consecutive year with an increased shareholder dividend. Original investors earned a 2015 return on investment of 3% with recent investors enjoying a 1.82% annual return on a $16.50 share cost" stated David Firack President and Chief Executive Officer of Old Mission Bancorp, Inc. in making the announcement. "A consistent approach to risk management, asset deployment and capital growth is reflected in our performance, which has been the basis of our dividend growth. Our Board remains committed to consistent and fair dividends in line with performance, while retaining sufficient capital to support growth and buffer risks", concluded Firack.

In announcing the dividend, CEO Firack reported consolidated corporate 3rd Quarter assets of $109 million consistent with 3rd Quarter 2014, the balance sheet further strengthened by consecutive years of over 7% loan growth year to date. The company posted consolidated 3rd Quarter 2015 earnings after tax of $444,013, providing $1.05 in earnings per share on 563,131 shares, an improvement of 9.6% over 2014. Book value per share grew by 5.5% over 2014 same period, to a new high of $23.64.

Old Mission Bancorp, Inc. has 308 shareholders with 563,131 shares outstanding, the vast majority owned by area shareholders who recognize the inherent value in a locally owned and controlled Community Bank. The corporation uses Camels Consulting, LLC, an independent bank consulting firm, to perform semi-annual stock valuations, with the June 30, 2015 valuation of $19.30 reflecting nearly a 2% increase over the $18.95 December 31, 2014 value. "2015 sales activity trails 2014 sales volume, with small block sales of $15.50 and $16.50 achieved. Dividend growth and a community charter are viewed favorably by shareholders who see their community bank as a solid investment, an investment they want to retain" stated President & CEO Firack. "The Eastern Upper Peninsula of Michigan is our home, and as our area grows and thrives, so does Old Mission. New shareholders bring additional demand for banking services and shares, which drives earnings and provides liquidity for existing shareholders, maintaining franchise vitality and viability. We want to grow our shareholder base and encourage investors to contact our executive management team about stock opportunities" stated Tom Robinson, Chairman of Old Mission Bancorp, Inc.
